Sukarno Plans Leftist Turn

Anti-Red Army Move Predicted

SINGAPORE (AP) — President Sukarno told a student rally in Jakarta today that Indonesia's course "will soon return to its original leftist track," Radio Jakarta reported.

Sukarno, who last week ousted Gen. Abdul Haris Nasution as defense minister, warned that anyone who opposed him would be crushed, the broadcast said.

A report from Manila said Nasution was in hiding but Radio Jakarta said he has declared his support of Sukarno.

Nasution, considered a rival of Sukarno for control of Indonesia, was ousted in a Cabinet shakeup last Monday. He had led the army purge of Communists after the attempted coup Oct. 1.

Wherever the anti-Communist Nasution is, reliable sources in Singapore said the armed forces loyal to him have not given in to Sukarno.

These sources predicted the armed forces would move, probably some time this week, not against Sukarno himself but to arrest First Deputy Premier Subandrio, considered pro-Peking.

Singapore sources gave little credence to the Jakarta broadcast saying Nasution now supports Sukarno.

They said members of the outlawed anti-Communist student organization, KAMI, demonstrated in Jakarta and clashed with the pro-Communist student group, GMI, after the latter left the rally addressed by Sukarno.

They said the anti-Communist students demand that Sukarno dissolve his new Cabinet.

No Gouging During Boom

SULPHUR LICK, Ky. (AP) — Despite a monopoly and being surrounded by gushing money, Charles Leamon has passed up the opportunity for quick profit to do what he thinks is honest.

Charlie and his wife own the only store at Sulphur Lick. It's the only store within nine miles of an oil gusher that has brought a boom to the area.

Oilmen came from all over the country and cars lined both sides of the road for a quarter-mile around the Charles Leamon store — the only convenient place to eat.

Customers were shoulder to shoulder on a recent visit. You had to push to get into this typical country store — shoes to beans, pot-bellied stove and rough wooden bench — that normally serves about 1,000 residents of the economically depressed farming area in south central Kentucky. The nearest stores are eight miles south in Tompkinsville or 15 miles north at Glasgow.

After the 4,000-barrel-a-day well was brought in Thanks-giving Day on the Jack Hays farm about a mile from the store, prices on oil leases went from less than $1 an acre to as much as $100 an acre.

But the sign in Leamon's store advertising sandwich prices remains unchanged?

Cong struck from three directions at 1:15 a.m. against the "new life" hamlet of Vo Xu, in coastal Binh Tuy Province. Prongs simultaneously hit a 120-man militia post and 350-man infantry battalion, both part of the village's defenses.

It was the first regimental-scale attack by the Communists against a government resettlement area in months. They used mortars and 50-caliber machine guns, setting huts afire and killing an undetermined number of refugees.

The Viet Cong charged the hamlet three times. Each time they were hurled back as well-placed air strikes and artillery rounds supported the beleaguered defenders. A government spokesman said at least 20 Viet Cong were killed and probably many more fell in the bombardment. Government casualties were described as moderate.

The area was taken back from the Viet Cong last fall by the U.S. 173rd Airborne Brigade. The Vietnamese 10th Division has been responsible for its defense since November.

The Reds attacked the hamlet after knocking out a company of American paratroopers in a six-hour fight 20 miles north of Saigon over the weekend. Fire from other guerrillas drove a ship around temporarily in the Saigon River Sunday.

South Vietnamese troops carried the brunt of the war on the ground in the past 24 hours of operations. A government spokesman said 33 more Viet Cong were killed and 18 weapons captured in a three-hour fight in northernmost Quang Tri Province, where several Vietnamese battalions have been hunting the Reds for a week.

Since last Tuesday 264 Viet Cong have been killed and 55 weapons captured in fighting along the coast only a few miles south of the 17th Parallel frontier with North Viet Nam, the spokesman said. The U.S. 7th Fleet has supported the government operations with coastal shelling.

The Strategic Air Command's B-52 bombers edged closer to the Laotian frontier this morning, dropping their big bombs on a suspected Viet Cong staging and storage area in central Kontum Province.

An Air Force spokesman said the strike was directed at curbing the flow of supplies into the country from the north along the Ho Chi Minh Trail, which winds down the jungles of western Laos.

Ex-Dictator Is Dead

MANAGUA, Nicaragua (AP) — Gen. Emiliano Chamorro 93, former dictator of Nicaragua, died Saturday of a heart attack. Despite two periods of exile, Chamorro remained titular head of Nicaragua's Conservatives.

The low pressure area in northern Texas causing the heavy Southeastern rains also brought drizzle and rain to a wide belt extending from the Southern and central Plains through the Ohio Valley to Virginia.

Thunderstorms struck the Gulf Coast with the New Orleans Naval Air Station reporting more than 3 inches in six hours. Mobile, Ala., recorded 2.25 inches in two hours. Biloxi, Miss., also reported more than 2 inches and Pensacola, Fla., reported 1.27 inches.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy tangled further Sunday over a possible future role for the Viet Cong in the South Vietnamese government.

Kennedy, a New York Democrat, suggested again that in order to negotiate a peace in South Viet Nam, the United States "must understand that the Communists... might end up in some way or another within the governmental structure of Viet Nam."

Humphrey, who initially attacked Kennedy's proposal as being equivalent to putting "a fox in a chicken coop," said on ABC's television-radio program "Issues and Answers" that his first assessment might have been "a little too genteel."

"The Viet Cong is not a fox," Humphrey said. "It has a more rapacious nature."

U.S. Aid Seen As Boon to Nationalists

WASHINGTON (AP) — An unprecedented study of the 15-year history of the U.S. foreign aid program in Nationalist China reports that the aid probably doubled the country's economic growth rate and lifted its living standards 30 years ahead.

The study was compiled by a team headed by Neil Jacoby, dean of the University of California (at Los Angeles) graduate school of business administration.

The findings indicate that Formosa justifiably is a U.S. aid showpiece, although some criticisms were noted. The Jacoby study said the $14-billion job probably could have been done for $200 million less, but also added that "such perfection in human affairs is unattainable."

Formosa's per-person income climbed from about $100 in 1951 to $160 last year and should go to $300 in the next 15 years, the study said.

The Jacoby report was released Sunday night by Director David E. Bell of the Agency for International Development, which sponsored the research.

Heavy Rain Hits Southeastern U.S.

New Reserve Board Aide To Avoid Monetary Debate

WASHINGTON (AP) — A middle-of-the-road economist nominated for a seat on the Federal Reserve Board said today he will steer clear of what he termed the "great debate" on the nation's monetary policy.

Andrew J. Brimmer, now assistant secretary of commerce for economic affairs, was asked in an interview if he had taken a position of the issue of "tight" or "easy money."

"No, and I don't intend to — certainly not at this point," replied the 39-year-old former college professor.

President Johnson named Brimmer, a Negro, to a 14-year term on the seven-member board Saturday. If confirmed by the Senate, he will succeed C. Canaby Balderston, whose term has expired, and will be the first Negro to serve on the board.

Johnson criticized the board in December when it voted 4 to 3, with Balderston in the majority, to increase from 4 to 4½ per cent the discount rate banks pay the Federal Reserve when they borrow money.

This had the effect of pushing up the rate the individual borrower pays for credit.

In announcing the nomination, Johnson described Brimmer as a "man of moderation." News-men promptly placed the middle-of-the-road tag on Brimmer, and he doesn't object.

"I agree with that," Brimmer said. "I don't consider that a bad thing."

Brimmer turned aside other questions on the "tight money" issue, saying it would be inappropriate for him to "get into the affairs of the board."

William McChesney Martin, Federal Reserve chairman who supported the discount rate increase, reportedly had expressed hope that Johnson would select a member of the business community to succeed Balderston.

But Martin hailed Brimmer's "very commendable record" as a member of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York in 1955-58.

The bulk of Brimmer's economic experience has been in the academic field. He obtained bachelor's and master's degrees at the University of Washington, a doctorate at Harvard, spent a year in India under a Fulbright scholarship and taught at the University of Washington, Harvard, College of New York, Massachusetts Institute of Technology and the University of Pennsylvania.

Brimmer joined the Commerce Department three years ago. He frequently sat in on conferences with the President's Council of Economic Advisers and representatives of other agencies, including the Federal Reserve Board.

But the labor secretary also acknowledged that what he called "a real resistance" exists toward the administration's suggested 3.2 per cent wage increase ceiling and its request that price lines be held.

2 Noisy Yeggs Nabbed by Police

EAST LIVERPOOL, Ohio (AP) — Two noisy would-be safe crackers from Midland, Pa., were caught in the act today at Private Eddy Post No. 66 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, police said.

Lt. William E. McDaniel of East Liverpool police said the post janitor, Sheridan Pollock, heard the pair at work on a safe containing "a sizeable amount" when he reported for work at 5:30 a. m.

When police arrived, they found the two men working by flashlight. A number of burglary tools were also seized, according to Lt. McDaniel.

Police declined to identify the pair pending interrogation.

BIE Day Plans Are on Schedule

Preparation for next month's Business - Industry - Education Day is right on schedule.

Representatives of local firms that will be taking part in the Mar. 29 event met today at Nicholas Drive School for their second 7:30 a. m. session. Alden D. Bray, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce sponsoring committee, said 60 businesses have expressed willingness to participate. He termed this an excellent response.

Today's preparatory meeting centered on distributing the names of high school seniors to the various firms that will be visited.

This year's program calls for seniors in the city and county high schools to visit business, industry and professional establishments. More than 450 students are expected to take part in the all-day session.

PARTICIPATING firms were reminded to prepare personal student invitation; and schedules of events. Copies of each are to be sent to the Chamber office.

Representatives from businesses taking part conducted their first meeting on Feb. 9 to map initial plans. Another session has been set for Mar.

Chile Faces New Wave of Labor Ills

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — A wave of labor trouble, much of it Communist inspired, threatens to upset Chile's wobbly economy. Strikes and slowdowns have hit basic industries and public services.

The country is faced with the prospect that a two-month strike against the Kennecott Corp. will become a nationwide copper strike and that a slowdown in the ports will turn into a strike this week.

Strikes soon on the government railway system and in the national health service also have been threatened if contract demands are not met.

Electric power, steel, telephone and nitrate workers are to begin negotiating new contracts soon. Union leaders say they will be much tougher this year.

The copper picture is the bleakest. Copper is Chile's basic industry, employing the largest work force and accounting for the majority of exports and foreign exchange.

Copper workers have been on strike at Kennecott's El Teniente mine and Caletones smelter in the Andes south of Santiago since Jan. 3, seeking higher wages and fringe benefits plus a sizable bonus.

Leaders of the 17,000-member Copper Workers Federation say workers at the Anaconda mines and smelters in northern Chile will strike in sympathy with the Kennecott workers if the strike is not settled within a day or two.

But the labor secretary also acknowledged that what he called "a real resistance" exists toward the administration's suggested 3.2 per cent wage increase ceiling and its request that price lines be held.

No Wage-Price Curbs Seen Needed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz says at the present time there is no need for the Johnson administration to consider mandatory wage and price controls.

This is because, he said Sunday on NBC's television show "Meet the Press," there still is sufficient voluntary self-restraint among business and labor to prevent runaway inflation.

But the labor secretary also acknowledged that what he called "a real resistance" exists toward the administration's suggested 3.2 per cent wage increase ceiling and its request that price lines be held.

How Ohioans Voted On Tax Boost Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — How House members were recorded as voting on passage, 246-146, of $5 billion tax increase bill:

Republicans for—Ayres, Bow, Democrats for—Ashley, Feighan, Gilligan, Hays, Kirwan, Love, Moeller, Sweeney, Vanik.

Republicans against—Ashbrook, Betts, Bolton, Brown, Clancy, Devine, Harsha, Latta, McCulloch, Minshall, Mosher, Stanton, Democrats against—Secret.

22 to complete final preparation.

The program accent will be on the American free enterprise system, the same as it was the last two years. In 1964, business in the community hosted teachers from both the city and county school districts. Last year the schools entertained business representatives.

The Mar. 29 program will complete the three-year cycle, with senior students being the center of attraction.

New Weather Eye Launched

ESSA 2 Slated To Flash Photos

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — ESSA 2, a mechanical meteorologist designed to snap and transmit cloud and storm pattern photos almost in the twinkling of its camera eyes, soared into orbit today to complete the world's first operational space weather reporting network.

Together with the earlier ESSA 1, the new weather watcher will provide a combination of global coverage every day and instant pictures to local forecasters in 22 nations.

Dubbed "everyman's satellite" because of its potential usefulness to all countries, the new weather observatory thundered away from Cape Kennedy right on schedule at 8:58 a.m. (EST) atop a Douglas Delta rocket that drilled it into orbit about 850 miles above the earth.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced the success of the flight and officially named the satellite ESSA 2, for environmental survey satellite. Ground stations planned to activate its cameras on Wednesday, after first checking out all payload systems.

Each of the two cameras is to take and transmit a picture every six minutes.

ESSA 1, launched Feb. 3, also carries two cameras which photograph all areas of the globe at least once every day, storing the pictures on board until the payload is over one of two receiving stations in the United States.

These pictures are distributed to interested weather agencies around the world.

The instant pictures can be used to improve local weather forecasts, to issue warnings of severe weather and to help select the safest routes for aircraft in flight and ships at sea.

India's Premier Plans March Visit to U.S.

NEW DELHI (AP) — Prime Minister Indira Gandhi will leave March 27 for a four-day visit to the United States, Foreign Minister Swaran Singh told Parliament today.

President Johnson invited Mrs. Gandhi to confer with him after she succeeded the late Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri. Shastri had been scheduled to visit Washington in early February but he died on Jan. 10.

Leaders of the 17,000-member Copper Workers Federation say workers at the Anaconda mines and smelters in northern Chile will strike in sympathy with the Kennecott workers if the strike is not settled within a day or two.

But the labor secretary also acknowledged that what he called "a real resistance" exists toward the administration's suggested 3.2 per cent wage increase ceiling and its request that price lines be held.

Every white man is taking a pot shot on the highway at the Negro seeking his rights," Muslim leader Elijah Muhammad said Sunday at the windup of a two-day convention.

Muhammad, 68, said of the Negro Baptist minister: "King is a very nice man, but he comes from very unfriendly people. King doesn't understand the Negro's problem. King says he loves whites and he wants to be their brother."

King, chairman of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, met here with Muhammad last week. King spends three days a week in Chicago working to eliminate slums.

Muhammad drew bursts of applause from the 6,000 followers in the Coliseum with frequent digs at the white man during a rambling 3-hour and 45-minute speech.

The small, wiry man, whose voice grew weaker as he talked, said of the Viet Nam conflict:

"If you (the whites) want us to go to war give us something to fight for. The whites don't want to go fight for their America and the Negro has no America to fight for."

Bassett, See Die In Jet Accident

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — U.S. astronauts Elliot M. See Jr. and Charles A. Bassett II, who were scheduled to fly into space in May, were killed today when their twin-jet plane crashed into the plant here where their space capsule was built.

See, 38, and Bassett, 33, were flying to the McDonnell Aircraft Corp. when their T38 fighter-trainer crashed into the roof of the space center at McDonnell's huge complex. McDonnell makes the Gemini spacecraft as well as Phantom jet fighter planes used in Viet Nam.

Ten persons working on a Phantom fighter were injured when the plane crashed at 9 a.m. (CST) into the top of the building, skidded over the roof and then crashed into a construction parking area below.

None of the 10 injured was believed hurt seriously.

The plane was making an instrument landing in light fog when it crashed. Another T38 fighter-trainer, also circling the airport, landed safely.

The Federal Aviation Agency said the cause of the crash was not known. The Weather Bureau said visibility was 1½ miles and the ceiling 800 feet.

The astronauts were on their way from the Manned Spacecraft Center in Houston, Tex.

See and Bassett were to ride into space this summer aboard Gemini 9. See was scheduled to be the command pilot, while Bassett was scheduled to take a 90-minute walk in space. Neither had made space flights before.

Astronauts regularly fly to McDonnell in the two-place T38 jets for work with factory technicians in preparation for Gemini flights.

The backup crew for Gemini 9 is Air Force Lt. Col. Thomas P. Stafford, the command pilot, and Navy Lt. Cmdr. Eugene A. Cernan, the pilot.

January Living Cost Is Steady

WASHINGTON (AP) — The rise in consumer prices halted in January for the first time since last summer, the Labor Department announced today.

The consumer price index leveled off at 111 per cent of the 1957-59 average, where it stood in December. This was 19 per cent above a year ago.

Labor Department officials said the report was "gratifying after four consecutive months of increase."

Arthur Ross, commissioner of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, told reporters: "I would caution you not to make too much of this; we do not believe it is too significant."

Showdown Vote Near On LBJ's Viet Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate argument over Viet Nam rolls toward a showdown today as administration forces seek to free a pair of embattled bills.

They appear to have the votes to carry both issues — an emergency $414-million foreign aid measure for Viet Nam now pending before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and the $4.8-billion Viet Nam military authorization waiting action on the Senate floor.

The senators also may get a chance late today to vote on a proposal to rescind or modify the 1964 Gulf of Tonkin resolution cited by President Johnson as giving him the authority to take any steps necessary to combat Communist aggression in Southeast Asia.

One of the leading critics of the Johnson Viet Nam policies, Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., has promised to introduce the proposal in an amendment to the Viet Nam money bill.

If he does, Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., chairman of the Armed Services Committee, said he would counterattack with a substitute proposal to reaffirm the resolution. Russell said he has the votes to win.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy tangled further Sunday over a possible future role for the Viet Cong in the South Vietnamese government.

SINGAPORE (AP) — President Sukarno told a student rally in Jakarta today that Indonesia's course "will soon return to its original leftist track," Radio Jakarta reported.

Sukarno, who last week ousted Gen. Abdul Haris Nasution as defense minister, warned that anyone who opposed him would be crushed, the broadcast said.

A report from Manila said Nasution was in hiding but Radio Jakarta said he has declared his support of Sukarno.

Nasution, considered a rival of Sukarno for control of Indonesia, was ousted in a Cabinet shakeup last Monday. He had led the army purge of Communists after the attempted coup Oct. 1.

These sources predicted the armed forces would move, probably some time this week, not against Sukarno himself but to arrest First Deputy Premier Subandrio, considered pro-Peking.

Singapore sources gave little credence to the Jakarta broadcast saying Nasution now supports Sukarno.

They said members of the outlawed anti-Communist student organization, KAMI, demonstrated in Jakarta and clashed with the pro-Communist student group, GMI, after the latter left the rally addressed by Sukarno.

They said the anti-Communist students demand that Sukarno dissolve his new Cabinet.

"Just because a man is an oilman," Leamon said, "I didn't think it would be right to double the price on him. The way it looks to me is that it is dishonest. I was selling them for that before, so I just kept on."

Leamon operates on the honor system.

New Reserve Board Aide To Avoid Monetary Debate

WASHINGTON (AP) — A middle-of-the-road economist nominated for a seat on the Federal Reserve Board said today he will steer clear of what he termed the "great debate" on the nation's monetary policy.

Andrew J. Brimmer, now assistant secretary of commerce for economic affairs, was asked in an interview if he had taken a position of the issue of "tight" or "easy money."

"No, and I don't intend to — certainly not at this point," replied the 39-year-old former college professor.

President Johnson named Brimmer, a Negro, to a 14-year term on the seven-member board Saturday. If confirmed by the Senate, he will succeed C. Canaby Balderston, whose term has expired, and will be the first Negro to serve on the board.

Johnson criticized the board in December when it voted 4 to 3, with Balderston in the majority, to increase from 4 to 4½ per cent the discount rate banks pay the Federal Reserve when they borrow money.

This had the effect of pushing up the rate the individual borrower pays for credit.

In announcing the nomination, Johnson described Brimmer as a "man of moderation." Newsweek promptly placed the middle-of-the-road tag on Brimmer, and he doesn't object.

"I agree with that," Brimmer said. "I don't consider that a bad thing."

Brimmer turned aside other questions on the "tight money" issue, saying it would be inappropriate for him to "get into the affairs of the board."

"I want to look at the issues in a clear-headed manner as possible," he said.

William McChesney Martin, Federal Reserve chairman who supported the discount rate increase, reportedly had expressed hope that Johnson would select a member of the business community to succeed Balderston.

But Martin hailed Brimmer's "very commendable record" as a member of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York in 1955-58.

The bulk of Brimmer's economic experience has been in the academic field. He obtained bachelor's and master's degrees at the University of Washington, a doctorate at Harvard, spent a year in India under a Fulbright scholarship and taught at the University of Washington, Harvard, College of New York, Massachusetts Institute of Technology and the University of Pennsylvania.

Brimmer joined the Commerce Department three years ago. He frequently sat in on conferences with the President's Council of Economic Advisers and representatives of other agencies, including the Federal Reserve Board.

No Wage-Price Curbs Seen Needed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz says at the present time there is no need for the Johnson administration to consider mandatory wage and price controls.

This is because, he said Sunday on NBC's television show "Meet the Press," there still is sufficient voluntary self-restraint among business and labor to prevent runaway inflation.

But the labor secretary also acknowledged that what he called "a real resistance" exists toward the administration's suggested 3.2 per cent wage increase ceiling and its request that price lines be held.

BIE Day Plans Are on Schedule

Preparation for next month's Business-Industry-Education Day is right on schedule.

Representatives of local firms that will be taking part in the Mar. 29 event met today at Nicholas Drive School for their second 7:30 a. m. session. Alden D. Bray, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce sponsoring committee, said 60 businesses have expressed willingness to participate. He termed this an excellent response.

Today's preparatory meeting centered on distributing the names of high school seniors to the various firms that will be visited.

This year's program calls for seniors in the city and county high schools to visit business, industry and professional establishments. More than 450 students are expected to take part in the all-day session.

PARTICIPATING firms were reminded to prepare personal student invitation and schedules of events. Copies of each are to be sent to the Chamber office.

Representatives from businesses taking part conducted their first meeting on Feb. 9 to map initial plans. Another session has been set for Mar.

Chile Faces New Wave of Labor Ills

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — A wave of labor trouble, much of it Communist inspired, threatens to upset Chile's wobbly economy. Strikes and slowdowns have hit basic industries and public services.

The country is faced with the prospect that a two-month strike against the Kennecott Corp. will become a nationwide copper strike and that a slowdown in the ports will turn into a strike this week.

Strikes soon on the government railway system and in the national health service also have been threatened if contract demands are not met.

Electric power, steel, telephone and nitrate workers are to begin negotiating new contracts soon. Union leaders say they will be much tougher this year.

The copper picture is the bleakest. Copper is Chile's basic industry, employing the largest work force and accounting for the majority of exports and foreign exchange.

Copper workers have been on strike at Kennecott's El Teniente mine and Caledones smelter in the Andes south of Santiago since Jan. 3, seeking higher wages and fringe benefits plus a sizable bonus.

Leaders of the 17,000-member Copper Workers Federation say workers at the Anaconda mines and smelters in northern Chile will strike in sympathy with the Kennecott workers if the strike is not settled within a day or two.

But the labor secretary also acknowledged that what he called "a real resistance" exists toward the administration's suggested 3.2 per cent wage increase ceiling and its request that price lines be held.

WASHINGTON (AP) — How House members were recorded as voting on passage, 246-146, of $5 billion tax increase bill:

Republicans for—Ayres, Bow, Democrats for—Ashley, Feighan, Gilligan, Hays, Kirwan, Love, Moeller, Sweeney, Vanik.

Republicans against—Ashbrook, Betts, Bolton, Brown, Clancy, Devine, Harsha, Latta, McCulloch, Minshall, Mosher, Stanton. Democrats against—Secrest.

22 to complete final preparation.

The program accent will be on the American free enterprise system, the same as it was the last two years. In 1964, business in the community hosted teachers from both the city and county school districts. Last year the schools entertained business representatives.

The Mar. 29 program will complete the three-year cycle, with senior students being the center of attraction.

New Weather Eye Launched

ESSA 2 Slated To Flash Photos

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — ESSA 2, a mechanical meteorologist designed to snap and transmit cloud and storm pattern photos almost in the twinkling of its camera eyes, soared into orbit today to complete the world's first operational space weather reporting network.

Together with the earlier ESSA 1, the new weather watcher will provide a combination of global coverage every day and instant pictures to local forecasters in 22 nations.

Dubbed "everyman's satellite" because of its potential usefulness to all countries, the new weather observatory thundered away from Cape Kennedy right on schedule at 8:58 a. m. (EST) atop a Douglas Delta rocket that drilled it into orbit about 850 miles above the earth.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced the success of the flight and officially named the satellite ESSA 2, for environmental survey satellite. Ground stations planned to activate its cameras on Wednesday, after first checking out all payload systems.

Each of the two cameras is to take and transmit a picture every six minutes.

ESSA 1, launched Feb. 3, also carries two cameras which photograph all areas of the globe at least once every day, storing the pictures on board until the payload is over one of two receiving stations in the United States.

These pictures are distributed to interested weather agencies around the world.

The instant pictures can be used to improve local weather forecasts, to issue warnings of severe weather and to help select the safest routes for aircraft in flight and ships at sea.

Bassett, See Die In Jet Accident

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — U.S. astronauts Elliot M. See Jr. and Charles A. Bassett II, who were scheduled to fly into space in May, were killed today when their twin-jet plane crashed into the plant here where their space capsule was built.

See, 38, and Bassett, 33, were flying to the McDonnell Aircraft Corp. when their T38 fighter-trainer crashed into the roof of the space center at McDonnell's huge complex. McDonnell makes the Gemini spacecraft as well as Phantom jet fighter planes used in Viet Nam.

Ten persons working on a Phantom fighter were injured when the plane crashed at 9 a. m. (CST) into the top of the building, skidded over the roof and then crashed into a construction parking area below.

None of the 10 injured was believed hurt seriously.

The plane was making an instrument landing in light fog when it crashed. Another T38 fighter-trainer, also circling the airport, landed safely.

The Federal Aviation Agency said the cause of the crash was not known. The Weather Bureau said visibility was 1½ miles and the ceiling 800 feet.

The astronauts were on their way from the Manned Spacecraft Center in Houston, Tex.

See and Bassett were to ride into space this summer aboard Gemini 9. See was scheduled to be the command pilot, while Bassett was scheduled to take a 90-minute walk in space. Neither had made space flights before.

Astronauts regularly fly to McDonnell in the two-place T38 jets for work with factory technicians in preparation for Gemini flights.

The backup crew for Gemini 9 is Air Force Lt. Col. Thomas P. Stafford, the command pilot, and Navy Lt. Cmdr. Eugene A. Cernan, the pilot.

The Gemini 9 flight is a two-to-three-day rendezvous in

January Living Cost Is Steady

WASHINGTON (AP) — The rise in consumer prices halted in January for the first time since last summer, the Labor Department announced today.

The consumer price index leveled off at 111 per cent of the 1957-59 average, where it stood in December. This was 19 per cent above a year ago.

Labor Department officials said the report was "gratifying after four consecutive months of increase."

Arthur Ross, commissioner of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, told reporters: "I would caution you not to make too much of this; we do not believe it is too significant."

Clay Hails Muslim Chief

CHICAGO (AP) — The leader of the Black Muslims, a Negro supremacy sect, says Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. doesn't understand the Negro's problems.

"Every white man is taking a pot shot on the highway at the Negro seeking his rights," Muslim leader Elijah Muhammad said Sunday at the windup of a two-day convention.

Muhammad, 68, said of the Negro Baptist minister: "King is a very nice man, but he comes from very unfriendly people. King doesn't understand the Negro's problem. King says he loves whites and he wants to be their brother."

King, chairman of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, met here with Muhammad last week. King spends three days a week in Chicago working to eliminate slums.

Muhammad drew bursts of applause from the 6,000 followers in the Coliseum with frequent digs at the white man during a rambling 3-hour and 45-minute speech.

The small, wiry man, whose voice grew weaker as he talked, said of the Viet Nam conflict: "If you (the whites) want us to go to war give us something to fight for. The whites don't want to go fight for their America and the Negro has no America to fight for."

Cassius Clay, the world heavyweight champion who became a Black Muslim three years ago, led the cheering from his bleacher seat 25 feet from the speaking rostrum.

"Yes sir, yes sir," Clay, alias Muhammad Ali, yelled. "You teach us, oh Holy Messenger."

Muhammad, wearing a uniform and a crown, told the shouting audience:

"They call us teaching supremacists. What have they (the whites) taught for the last 300 years? The whites twist our words up and that's why we don't want them in our midst. That shows what devils these people are."

"Reveal 'em," Shouted Clay.

Man Who Triggered GE Plant Strike Is Out of Job

NEW CONCORD, Ohio (AP) —General Electric Co. warehouse employees on strike in a controversy over women in men's jobs have returned to work—minus the man whose complaint triggered the walkout and six others who reportedly quit.

Thus ended Sunday's midnight shift, temporarily at least, a bizarre stoppage in which one of the strikers was the woman whose reassignment launched the trouble.

She and her fellow employees, about 130 men and 20 women, went back to the job after strikers met in Zanesville Saturday night and so voted.

Harley Pryor Jr. of Cambridge, president of Local 2111, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, which never authorized the walkout, said the meeting was a move by the strikers themselves.

The walkout began early Wednesday when a man contended he was, as Pryor reported, "transferred off his light job that he had held five years and a woman with a year and a half of service was put on his light job."

It was the "last straw" in a situation in which nine women had been promoted from parts packing work to filling orders by pushing wheeled carts and loading them from bins for shipment out of the G-E appliance parts supply center.

In reporting the back-to-work decision, Pryor said the man "bumped" had quit. Six other men quit since the strike began, Pryor said, adding that "attitude had a lot to do with it."

Pryor noted that the union has a request pending with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and that the employees decided to resume work until the commission rules.

The issue is a purportedly never-tested provision of the 1964 Civil Rights Act banning job discrimination because of sex.

Male employees say favoritism is being shown the women.

General Electric, with supply center personnel director Joe Dirks as spokesman, has maintained the company is abiding by the law. It has stated the women were given the jobs under the civil rights law giving them equal opportunity since the work they are doing "was entirely within their capability."

News of World in Brief

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court denied today a hearing to Columbus, Ohio, on an appeal from a decision that it must compensate property owners who complained of noise and vibration from airplanes using a runway at the municipal airport.

Twenty-eight property owners in the "Wonderland Addition" of Columbus said planes using what is known as runway 9 left, 29 right disturbed sleep, loosened wall plaster, jarred dishes from shelves, and disturbed the peace and quiet of their homes.

Ohio state courts held the property owners were entitled to compensation from the city, the amounts to be determined in later proceedings. Appealing to the Supreme Court, the city contended the air space involved was part of the public domain under terms of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958.

Tribunal Hears Dr. Sam's Case

Pre-Trial Publicity Argument Pushed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court heard today counsel for Dr. Samuel Sheppard, former Cleveland osteopath convicted in the 1954 slaying of his first wife, argue that newspaper publicity deprived him of a fair trial.

Sheppard, accompanied by his German-born second wife and his son, Samuel, 19, looked on intently from the first row of spectators in the packed chamber as the arguments began.

Through arguments by his counsel, the former Cleveland, Ohio, osteopath hopes to win a new trial with additional contentions. One is that evidence presented against him 12 years ago was not sufficient to sustain a conviction.

The conviction was for murder in the second degree and he was given a life sentence. He was released under a habeas corpus order after serving 10 years.

In the latest legal move in Ohio, the U.S. Circuit Court in Cincinnati rejected Sheppard's contention that he didn't get a fair trial. But it permitted him to remain at liberty on bail pending outcome of his appeal to the highest tribunal.

Sheppard's first wife, Marilyn, was pregnant when she was beaten to death. Sheppard has always claimed that a bushy-haired intruder killed her. In 1964 he married a German-born divorcee with whom he had carried on a correspondence while in prison.

Sheppard's lawyer, F. Lee Bailey of Boston, asked in a preliminary brief submitted to the Supreme Court that the justices rule on 11 questions. The first was whether pretrial publicity so prejudiced the community that no fair and impartial jury could have been impaneled.

Ohio Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe said in his preliminary brief, "The facts of this case do not warrant a presumption of community prejudice inherent in the nature of the pretrial publicity, nor do they justify a finding of actual juror prejudice."

Man Who Triggered GE Plant Strike Is Out of Job

NEW CONCORD, Ohio (AP) — General Electric Co. warehouse employees on strike in a controversy over women in men's jobs have returned to work—minus the man whose complaint triggered the walkout and six others who reportedly quit.

Thus ended Sunday's midnight shift, temporarily at least, a bizarre stoppage in which one of the strikers was the woman whose reassignment launched the trouble.

She and her fellow employees, about 130 men and 20 women, went back to the job after strikers met in Zanesville Saturday night and so voted.

Harley Pryor Jr. of Cambridge, president of Local 2111, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, which never authorized the walkout, said the meeting was a move by the strikers themselves.

The walkout began early Wednesday when a man contended he was, as Pryor reported, "transferred off his light job that he had held five years and a woman with a year and a half of service was put on his light job."

It was the "last straw" in a situation in which nine women had been promoted from parts packing work to filling orders by pushing wheeled carts and loading them from bins for shipment out of the G-E appliance parts supply center.

In reporting the back-to-work decision, Pryor said the man "bumped" had quit. Six other men quit since the strike began, Pryor said, adding that "attitude had a lot to do with it."

Pryor noted that the union has a request pending with the Equal Employment Opportunities Commission and that the employees decided to resume work until the commission rules.

The issue is a purportedly never-tested provision of the 1964 Civil Rights Act banning job discrimination because of sex.

Male employees say favoritism is being shown the women.

General Electric, with supply center personnel director Joe Dirks as spokesman, has maintained the company is abiding by the law. It has stated the women were given the jobs under the civil rights law giving them equal opportunity since the work they are doing "was entirely within their capability."

He claimed he carried a petition with 100,000 signatures in support of his peace campaign.

News of World in Brief

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court denied today a hearing to Columbus, Ohio, on an appeal from a decision that it must compensate property owners who complained of noise and vibration from airplanes using a runway at the municipal airport.

Twenty-eight property owners in the "Wonderland Addition" of Columbus said planes using what is known as runway 9 left, 29 right disturbed sleep, loosened wall plaster, jarred dishes from shelves, and disturbed the peace and quiet of their homes.

Ohio state courts held the property owners were entitled to compensation from the city, the amounts to be determined in later proceedings. Appealing to the Supreme Court, the city contended the air space involved was part of the public domain under terms of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958.

General Electric Company's 1965 world-wide operations reached record levels in sales, earnings, employment, plant investment, and wages and benefits, President Fred J. Borch has announced.

On the company's newly adopted world-wide consolidated basis, 1965 sales amounted to $6 billion 214 million, a gain of 14 per cent over consolidated sales in 1964 or $5 billion 450 million.

Consolidated net earnings were $355 million, or $3.90 a share, an increase of 21 per cent over comparable 1964 earnings of $294 million, or $3.24 a share. This is equivalent to 5.7 per cent of sales, compared to 5.4 per cent in 1964.

Reports Slated At Chamber Meet

Various committee reports will be on the agenda at Tuesday's monthly directors meeting, Circleville Area Chamber of Commerce.

The reports will be based on activities in area development, congressional action, education, membership and retail merchants.

Pictures are scheduled to be taken following the business meeting. The luncheon session will be conducted at Pick-away Arms.

School Employees Plan To Sell City Building

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A $6.7 million "for sale" sign has been put on the Ohio School Employees Retirement fund's 20-story office building in downtown Columbus. The OSERS board ran an advertisement in a Columbus newspaper Sunday, offering sale of the building.

Ward Ashman, the board's executive director, said the advertisement resulted from a decision by the board Friday. He said the "ad speaks for itself," and refused further comment.

Vote of Confidence

Buying now and paying later becomes more popular every year. Word from the Federal Reserve Board is that consumers owed $67.4 billion under installment plans at the end of last year, or $8.1 billion more than at the end of 1963.

Economists expect installment debt to keep on growing. Monthly payments are, in fact, running at a record high, having reached $5.7 billion in December, or $500,000 more than a year earlier. Personal saving declined $1.2 billion in 1965, but it still was $4.7 billion higher than in 1963.

That American consumers are continuing to take on heavy installment obligations is a sign of confidence that they will keep the jobs and income needed to repay. And that is a vote of confidence in the nation's economic future.

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...

By LESTER L. COLLMAN, M.D.

When a serious condition arises and the family exerts pressure for "another" opinion, what is the ethical way to seek a consultant?

Patients often become unnecessarily involved in what they consider to be medical ethics. The morals, motives and ethics of medicine are a part of the relationship between doctors and themselves. There professional standards of practice do not affect patients who seek an additional opinion about a serious problem.

It is perfectly understandable that solicitous family and friends may want another judgment of a medical condition.

The logical and sensible approach to this uncomplicated problem is to speak to your own physician about it. Doctors are aware of the apprehension and confusion that beset patients and appreciate their need for confirmation of the diagnosis of serious illness.

Your doctor then arranges to meet in consultation with a physician of his or your choice, presents all the available data and then they come to a mutual conclusion about the exact form of treatment.

The "behind your doctor's back" opinion only duplicates the cost, repeats the studies and finally alienates you from a vital relationship with your doctor.

Can clubfoot be corrected early in life?

The malformation of clubfoot starts sometime during the early months of development. The exact cause is still unknown.

When the child is born, and clubfoot noted, repositioning and correction with plaster casts is done very early in infancy. Surgery is rarely necessary.

With persistent attention, repositioning and manipulation, the results are most encouraging. Children then learn to walk, function and play without interference to their activity.

What is meant by a tennis elbow?

Repeated strains, stresses and sprains may cause a stretching of the muscles of the forearm that can produce pain. Injury to the delicate joints of the elbow may make it difficult to rotate the arm or to take a tight grip on an object.

The game of tennis is rarely the actual cause for this condition. Yet the name lingers on.

Each case must be individually studied before treatment is started. Splints, injections of local anesthetics and cortisone bring early relief for this unpleasant but not serious disorder.

Manipulation, gently performed, is another excellent form of treatment.

Nail biting is often a symptom of frustration, confusion and tension. Kindness, sympathy and understanding, not punishment, are the treatments.

New York City's famed Coney Island is planning to celebrate this spring the 99th birthday of that king of American sandwiches, the hot dog. It should be a wing-ding affair, with all the trimmings—including plenty of mustard.

Nationalist China has begun the publishing of its new encyclopedia which consists of 200 million words crammed into 80 volumes. "Encyclopedia Sinica" is its name, though a more appropriate title would be "Instant Library."

Moscow proudly announces development of a propeller-driven sleigh that skims across snow at 87 miles an hour. So what? — Santa Claus' vehicle circles the Earth in a single night!

The succulent wiener sandwich made its bow on Coney Island's boardwalk on April 9, 1867. At the moment, we can think of only two more important American dates — Oct. 12, 1492, and July 4, 1776.

U.S. Counts 1,401 Symphonies

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Who says Americans are uncultured? We now have 1,401 symphony orchestras—and what nation can boast more?

High heels weren't invented to please modern fashion-conscious dolls. They were developed long ago by the Persians to keep their feet off the hot desert sands.

Do you complain about your doctor's fees? The American Medical Association claims that in the last 20 years physicians' charges have gone up only 113 per cent, but the pay of factory workers has increased 150 per cent.

Getting there first sometimes makes all the difference. On Feb. 14, 1876, Alexander Graham Bell filed an application for a patent on the telephone. We all remember him. Surely you remember Eliza Gray too. No? Well, Gray was the fellow who applied for a telephone patent just two hours after Bell did.

Quotable notables: "America never lost a war or won a conference"—Will Rogers.

Here's another worry off your mind: Amy Vanderbilt, the etiquette lady, says it is quite proper to pick up celery, asparagus, bacon and artichokes and eat them from your fingers. But how about country-fried chicken?

Even if the problems of cancer and hardening of the arteries are solved, scientists doubt that the average life span of man can be extended much beyond 80 years.

Neckties were first popularized in Britain in 1660 by King Charles II, whose father was beheaded 11 years earlier for far lesser crimes. It looks like the English executed the wrong monarch.

If a man makes a stupid mistake, men say, "What a fool that fellow is." But if a woman makes a mistake, men say, "What fools women are!"

King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella of Spain spent $14,000 to equip Christopher Columbus for his discovery of the New World. It will cost the United States more than $20 billion to put its first astronauts on the moon.

Conservatives Win One

By John Chamberlain

Politically speaking, the conservatives haven't won many victories lately. The Great Society, which tends to make most of our important phases of welfare compulsory and to put them under centralized State control, has rolled over the country. The National Association of Manufacturers has made

Richard Cornuelle, a leading proponent of voluntary government action, the head of its program division, but you may be sure that if Mr. Cornuelle, turns up anything interesting in the way of voluntary welfare action the government will move into the field and take it over. We are off on a sustained government kick, and conservatives can't do much to slow down this trend to statism.

But if the conservatives haven't had their way about welfare, they are nevertheless winning one of their crusades. They are managing more and more to make their point of view prevail in the field of education. Specifically, they have been routing the so-called "progressives" (who, incidentally, are not progressive here at all) in the various branches of language instruction.

Not so long ago the U. S. Office of Education started twenty-seven projects in first-grade reading instruction. The results of the projects have not been officially compiled, but those who have seen the comparisons of the relative effectiveness of the "look-say" and phonics approaches to reading at the first grade level say that four out of six of the projects "indicated clearly superior results for the phonics systems and two indicated no significant difference."

Whether the Office of Education is totally convinced by this is a question, but it is nonetheless revealing that a report from California says the federal government has threatened to withhold funds from the San Diego school system until it does something about adding drill in phonics to the sloppy "whole word" sight recognition of the "look-say" method.

The conservatives are also making headway in their efforts to improve the content of grade-school reading. The Council for Basic Education in Washington, D. C., tells us that major publishers are beginning to make fun of the "Oh, oh. See Dick run" type of reader. Many of the teachers' manuals have done away with the practice of arbitrarily limiting students' vocabularies.

The Modern Language Association has started a movement to replace the Dick and Jane readers with good literature. Grimm's Fairy Tales, which have been frowned upon in recent years because some of them are bloodthirsty, have been restored to some schools, possibly on the theory that they are far less offensive in their violence to what the kids see daily on their home television screens. The Brothers Grimm at least contributed style to their horror stories. The simpler poems of Robert Frost are now being read in the early grades, and Sinclair Lewis and Ernest Hemingway are standard fare in high school courses.

But if there is a visible improvement in school teaching, the conservatives still have a way to go before they can afford to relax. The tendency to edit and simplify some stories that are already simple enough has not been checked. Longfellow's "Hiawatha," with its sing-song rhythm, can be grasped by virtually anyone (in fact, it is practically impossible to get its lines out of your mind), but the other day my eight-year-old son brought home a paraphrased version of the poem. I considered this an insult both to Longfellow and the eight-year-old intelligence.

Watson Washburn, the president of the Reading Reform Foundation in New York, is impatient with the progress made by his organization in restoring phonics instruction and good reading to the schools. He remarks that "talking still is taught at home by parents, usually by mothers, and they do the job so well that we do not hear much of talking failures anywhere in the U. S." The same, he says, "used to be true of reading, which in the golden age was also often taught at home to children as soon as they learned to speak fluently. . . . There were no remedial teachers fifty years ago, because there was no remedial reading problem."

Mr. Washburn's pessimism, however, diminishes year by year. In pushing their education crusade, the conservatives are on the threshold of at least one big victory.

Not so long ago the U. S. Office of Education started twenty-seven projects in first-grade reading instruction. The results of the projects have not been officially compiled, but those who have seen the comparisons of the relative effectiveness of the "look-say" and phonics approaches to reading at the first grade level say that four out of six of the projects "indicated clearly superior results for the phonics systems and two indicated no significant difference."

Whether the Office of Education is totally convinced by this is a question, but it is nonetheless revealing that a report from California says the federal government has threatened to withhold funds from the San Diego school system until it does something about adding drill in phonics to the sloppy "whole word" sight recognition of the "look-say" method. The conservatives are also making headway in their efforts to improve the content of grade-school reading. The Council for Basic Education in Washington, D. C., tells us that major publishers are beginning to make fun of the "Oh, oh. See Dick run" type of reader. Many of the teachers' manuals have been done away with the practice of arbitrarily limiting students' vocabularies.

The Modern Language Association has started a movement to replace the Dick and Jane readers with good literature. Grimm's Fairy Tales, which have been frowned upon in recent years because some of them are bloodthirsty, have been restored to some schools, possibly on the theory that they are far less offensive in their violence to what the kids see daily on their home television screens. The Brothers Grimm at least contributed style to their horror stories. The simpler poems of Robert Frost are now being read in the early grades, and Sinclair Lewis and Ernest Hemingway are standard fare in high school courses.

But if there is a visible improvement in school teaching, the conservatives still have a way to go before they can afford to relax. The tendency to edit and simplify some stories that are already simple enough has not been checked. Longfellow's "Hiawatha," with its sing-song rhythm, can be grasped by virtually anyone (in fact, it is practically impossible to get its lines out of your mind), but the other day my eight-year-old son brought home a paraphrased version of the poem. I considered this an insult both to Longfellow and the eight-year-old intelligence.

Watson Washburn, the president of the Reading Reform Foundation in New York, is impatient with the progress made by his organization in restoring phonics instruction and good reading to the schools. He remarks that "talking still is taught at home by parents, usually by mothers, and they do the job so well that we do not hear much of talking failures anywhere in the U. S." The same, he says, "used to be true of reading, which in the golden age was also often taught at home to children as soon as they learned to speak fluently. . . . There were no remedial teachers fifty years ago, because there was no remedial reading problem."

Mr. Washburn's pessimism, however, diminishes year by year. In pushing their education crusade, the conservatives are on the threshold of at least one big victory.

Founder of Girl Scouts Honored by Local Troops

"Girl Scout Memories" was the theme of the Girl Scout Thinking Day Program given by Logan Elm Neighborhood 2:30 p. m. Sunday at the Trinity Lutheran Church Parish House.

The program opened with the flag ceremony. Color guards were Susan Reichelderfer and Jetty Adams of Troop No. 1197. Mrs. Edwin Richardson, Juliette Low chairman for the neighborhood, welcomed the guests and explained that this traditional day is held in February to honor the birthday of Juliette Low, founder of Girl Scouting, which occurs on the 22nd of the month. On this day, Scouts and Girl Guides around the world pause to think of each other and the ever growing Scout movement.

Following a vocal "Hello" to the audience, sung by all troops Mrs. Willis Flowers, as the Adult Scout, Connie Flowers as the Junior Scout, and Monique Jacobs as the Brownie Scout, presented a skit in which they resurrected from the old trunk in the attic craft items and song books from the mother's past years in Scouting.

Brownie Troop No. 215, led by Mrs. Harvey Easter and Mrs. Gale Seymour, sang the Brownie Smile Song. The Igloo Square Dance was performed by Brownie Troop No. 116 under the direction of Mrs. Daniel Bond and Mrs. Robert Van Gundy.

Mrs. Gerald Bowers and Mrs. Jennings Van Dyke led members of Troop No. 89 in the singing of "Shalom Chaverim", depicting scouts interest in the songs and lore of other lands. They also displayed craft items from different troops and many which were made at Camp Miska last summer.

Junior Troop No. 117 sang the "Johnny Appleseed Song" and the game song, "The Lion Hunt". Mrs. Willis Flowers and Mrs. Robert Jones were their leaders.

Mrs. Ned Reichelderfer and Mrs. Carl Smith presented members of their Junior Troop No. 1197 who gave a short version of Jack and the Beanstalk, using hand puppets which they had made. The cast included Elizabeth Schum m. Vickie Bowers, Nedra Dresbach, Jo-delle Ayers, and Teresa Troutman.

Junior Troop No. 43, under the direction of their leaders, Mrs. Karl Morrison and Mrs. Paul Schein, presented a short sketch of the history of Girl Scouting and the World Friendship Fund.

Mrs. William Hulse Jr., chairman of Logan Elm Neighborhood, recognized troop leaders and other officers in the neighborhood. A highlight of this ceremony was the presentation of a 15 year service pin to Mrs. Robert Jones Sr.

The program closed with singing and the retiring of the colors by the color guard.

Miss Susan Bennett was pianist for the program. Refreshments were served to Scouts and their guests following the program.

Fluoridation Discussed at BPW Session

"The Effectivity and Economy of Fluorine" was the program topic when the Circleville Business and Professional Women's Club met in the Mecca Restaurant. The civic participation committee, with Mrs. Keith Wagner serving as chairman, was in charge.

Dr. Robert Phillips and Charles Wellman of the safety and health committee of the Chamber of Commerce, discussed fluoridation.

During the business meeting Mrs. Roliff Wolford, president, presided. Invitations were read for the Columbia Gas of Ohio Cooking School, Mar. 23-24, the Annual Antique Show by the Zanesville Club, Mar. 18-20.

Dr. Nancy Lu Conrad and Mrs. James Ullman, co-chairmen of the recent School of Defensive Driving, reviewed the benefits of the project.

Mrs. Charles Curlett gave a report of the Feb. 22 visit to the Delaware Club. Other local club representatives attending were Mrs. Lucille Bostwick, Miss Ruth Hulse, Miss Ona Hurst and Miss Daisy Karlskint.

For the nominating committee the president appointed the following: Mrs. Curlett, Mrs. Wagner and Mrs. Harold Defenbaugh.

A patriotic discussion, led by Mrs. Ullman, was conducted concerning local support for the growing interest in honoring local citizens who give their lives for their country.

One example cited was flying the flag at half-mast. The civic participation committee will make an investigation concerning the best procedures for this venture.

Invitations to the 12 Clubs in District No. 10 are being sent for the Mar. 23 session. The personal development committee, with Mrs. Ullman serving as chairman, will be in charge.

Dear Abby: Can Doctor Break a Trust?

DEAR ABBY: If you were a trusted friend and family physician would you tell the parents of a 16-year-old girl that their daughter came to you requesting a prescription for birth control pills?

MADISON, M.D.
DEAR M. D.: I would not. But I would do everything within my power, short of betraying the girl, to open the lines of communication between the parents of their daughter. I invite other physicians to answer this intelligent question.

DEAR ABBY: At 28, I married a man 12 years my senior. He had been married previously, but his wife died. (They had no children.) After 14 years of marriage, my husband still insists on keeping in touch with a former sister-in-law. This young woman is definitely lacking in morals, having lived with five different men that I know of, without being married to any of them. Throughout our marriage my husband visited this woman about twice a week after work. (He gets off at 1 p.m.)

He insists that their relationship is platonic, but I find it hard to believe because of her reputation. He says they just sit and talk. Would I be wise to ask him to invite HER to our home to "talk?" I really don't want her in my home, Abby, but what else can I do?

WHAT TO DO
DEAR WHAT: Don't be a hypocrite. If you don't want her in your home, don't suggest that your husband invite her. Tell him that for him to call regularly on this woman, knowing the kind of reputation she has, is damaging to his own. Let him know that you disapprove, and unequivocally. It may not stop the "talks"—but at least he'll know you weren't born yesterday.

DEAR ABBY: A relative came to my home for Sunday supper at noon. She ate, helped with the dishes, and played cards until 10 o'clock that evening. She did all this with her hat on. I have never heard of anything like that being done. Is this an old custom?

FARM FOLKS
DEAR FOLKS: If it is an "old custom," it is news to me. Maybe it was a new hat.

DEAR ABBY: At a party recently, while being introduced to a woman, I said routinely, "How do you do?" She replied sharply, "What do you mean—" "How do you do—we've met before!"

I wasn't prepared for that kind of response, so I just stood there, feeling foolish. Finally she told me where we had met, and then I vaguely recalled having met her. Naturally I was very uncomfortable and couldn't wait to get away from her.

Please tell me, what is the proper way to handle a situation of this kind? I am sure we have all "met" people we have met before.

EMBARRASSED
DEAR EMBARRASSED: When one is introduced to someone he has met before, he should acknowledge the introduction as though it were the first. If later there is an opportunity to remind the person privately you've met before, do so. But a well-bred person never embarrasses anyone with such a display.

Will Tax Hike Stem Inflation?

By RICHARD GRAVES
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The nation's economic managers — both government and private — posed this question during the week: Is it time for a tax increase to ward off inflation?

There appeared to be agreement that if inflation gets rolling — and some contend it has — a tax boost is the best way to stop it. But the kind of taxes, how much and when remained at issue.

Discussion referred to this statement by President Johnson in his budget message: "should unforeseen inflationary pressures develop, I will propose such fiscal actions as are appropriate to maintain economic stability."

Economists have interpreted that to mean taxes would be raised to draw money out of the economy to reduce the kind of heavy demand that pushes up prices.

Walter Heller, former chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers and architect of the government tax-reduction policy of the 1960s, suggested that the first step should be elimination of a 7 per cent investment credit now allowed business.

The credit lets companies deduct from taxes up to 7 per cent of their total expenditure on investment.

The credit was enacted to stimulate economic expansion. Elimination would draw funds from the economy and dampen business enthusiasm for expansion of plants. Such expansion tends to increase inflationary pressures.

However, Heller, appearing at a symposium of economists in Washington, D.C., on Wednesday, indicated he is not certain that tax action should be taken.

Henry Wallich, a Yale professor, argued that tax increases should be imposed now. He contended that later on, if inflationary pressures mount, the lag between enactment and effect would allow some inflation.

Several economists suggested enactment of standby legislation that could be implemented quickly.

Meanwhile, the American Bankers Association urged "caution in effecting a broad base tax increase at this time," saying that no tax boost should be made "without firm accompanying efforts to cut back on domestic (government) spending proposals."

The economy continued to show possibly inflationary bulges. The Federal Reserve Board reported these changes in national economic indicators: Consumer prices in January rose to 111.2 per cent of the 1957-59 level, up 0.2 from December; wholesale prices rose in January to 104.6, up 0.5 from December; industrial production rose to 149.9, up 1.4, and bank loans expanded $2.6 billion on a month-to-month basis.

The wholesale price index has risen at an annual rate of 4.7 per cent since September, the Federal Reserve said. That increase compares with an average annual percentage increase of 0.4 per cent since 1951. Economists view the 4.7 per cent rate as inflationary.

On the downturn, however, are housing starts. Chairman John E. Horne, of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, said he looks for a decline of 5 per cent in the availability of mortgage funds during the year.

Also, steel production so far this year is running 9.1 per cent behind the comparable period of 1965. Production for the year through the week ended Feb. 12 was 17,425,000 tons against 19,177,000 tons a year ago. However, on a weekly basis, production was up slightly. Automobile production dropped to 194,067 during the past week as American Motors closed its assembly lines for 10 working days to get inventory in line with sales.

Rash of Fires in Ohio Takes Total of 7 Lives

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Seven lives were lost, several firemen were injured, property damage ran high and school schedules were scrambled in a flurry of fires around Ohio over the weekend.

The fatal fires included one in an Akron apartment that killed a mother and four children Saturday night.

Lima Central Junior High School, with 1,500 enrollment, suffered $250,000 damage in a Sunday morning blaze. No one was injured.

Three firemen were tracted for smoke inhalation and several more suffered cuts from broken glass when fire swept a business building in Carrollton Saturday night.

An explosion and fire destroyed a big lumber yard west of Portsmouth early Sunday and the State Fire Marshall's Office said there were indications of arson.

Deaths included those of Mrs. Barbara Jean Roberts, 31, and her children, Margaret, 9; Dwight, 8; Adrienne, 6 and Daniel three months, in the Akron tragedy.

Joe Watson, 30, perished when flames destroyed his house trailer near Mount Orab in Brown County Saturday, and Charles Teigand, 78, died when his clothing caught fire as he burned rubbish behind his home near Strasburg in Tuscarawas County Sunday.

Thirty tenants of the building in Akron where the Roberts died were evacuated safely. That fire, of undetermined origin, was confined to the area of the Roberts apartment.

At Lima, Central Junior High — the former Lima High School — was believed to have been afire several hours before a postal worker spotted flames from across the street at about 8 a.m.

Fire Chief Walter Hydaker said there was some suspicion about the fire's cause. He recalled that two fires, relatively minor, had been set at the junior high school over the Christmas holidays.

This one evidently started in a second floor cafeteria area and spread through most of the upper floor before flames shot through the roof of the 62-year-old building.

Chief Hydaker's damage estimate did not include that of contents.

Central Junior High's students now will have classes in Lima Senior High School—1:15 to 6 p.m.—while the senior high students' classes will be 7 a.m. to 1:15 p.m. The routine starts Thursday.

At Carrollton, the three-story Butler Building suffered an estimated $10,000 damage and $15,000 in merchandise was ruined when fire hit the two top floors. The building housed a clothing store. Adjoining buildings were damaged.

An unofficial estimate of the loss at the Taylor Lumber Co. at McDermott near Portsmouth was $150,000. The explosion there, heard for miles, tore out part of the main building and triggered a fire that burned five hours. No one was hurt.

In Cincinnati, fire erupted at the Ray St. Clair Roofing and Chimney Service and an employee, George Garlad, 37, suffered critical burns.

Somewhat on the lighter side, some children helped rescue eight Cincinnati firemen who responded to an alarm at a 13-story apartment house and became trapped in an elevator.

The power failed as the elevator reached the eighth floor, and the firefighters were trapped 10 minutes until youngsters helped them pry the door open. The fire? It turned out to be a smoky incinerator.

Fish is a staple in the Portuguese economy. Fish exports in 1964 netted more than $39 million in foreign exchange. One of every 50 Portuguese men earns his livelihood from the sea.

Henry Wallich, a Yale professor, argued that tax increases should be imposed now. He contended that later on, if inflationary pressures mount, the lag between enactment and effect would allow some inflation.

Several economists suggested enactment of standby legislation that could be implemented quickly.

Meanwhile, the American Bankers' Association urged "caution in effecting a broad base tax increase at this time," saying that no tax boost should be made "without firm accompanying efforts to cut back on domestic (government) spending proposals."

The economy continued to show possibly inflationary bulges. The Federal Reserve Board reported these changes in national economic indicators: Consumer prices in January rose to 111.2 per cent of the 1957-59 level, up 0.2 from December; wholesale prices rose in January to 104.6, up 0.5 from December; industrial production rose to 149.9, up 1.4, and bank loans expanded $2.6 billion on a month-to-month basis.

The wholesale price index has risen at an annual rate of 4.7 per cent since September, the Federal Reserve said. That increase compares with an average annual percentage increase of 0.4 per cent since 1951. Economists view the 4.7 per cent rate as inflationary.

On the downturn, however, are housing starts. Chairman John E. Horne, of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, said he looks for a decline of 5 per cent in the availability of mortgage funds during the year.

Also, steel production so far this year is running 9.1 per cent behind the comparable period of 1965. Production for the year through the week ended Feb. 12 was 17,425,000 tons against 19,177,000 tons a year ago. However, on a weekly basis, production was up slightly.

Automobile production dropped to 194,067 during the past week as American Motors closed its assembly lines for 10 working days to get inventory in line with sales.

WHY?

Why do Doctors advise their patients to have prescriptions filled at Revco?

Because they have learned through actual experience that Revco Registered Pharmacists adhere strictly to the highest ethical standards of the profession.

Because they have learned from patients that Revco prescription prices save them important money.

No wonder Revco Registered Pharmacists — who filled only 125,000 prescriptions in 1957 — now fill over 4 MILLION PRESCRIPTIONS EACH YEAR!

To prove how much you can save, have your next prescriptions priced at Revco. Chances are you'll have them filled there, too.

Westfall Defense Sparks 80-54 Tourney Victory

BLOCKED — Academy players Steve Mahaffey (13) and Stan Lisle (53) watch teammate John Fulford leap high to block a shot by Neil Coleman during Saturday's tilt at Teays Valley. Westfall won, 80-54.

Westfall's pressuring defense, which has intimidated more than one basketball team this year, paved the way for a 80-54 win over Academy in the Teays Valley Sectional Saturday.

The Mustangs were down, 19-14 at the end of the first quarter when they went into their harassing defensive tactics.

Halfway through the second period, the Mustangs took a lead which they never relinquished. By halftime they led, 41-32. Maintaining their full court press until the final buzzer, they built a 58-45 three-quarter edge and in the fourth quarter shut off the losers with just nine points, while picking up 22.

The Mustangs got on the scoreboard first in the game when Tom Scribner hit a jump shot from near the foul line with just eight seconds of play gone. Still within the first minute, Neil Coleman connected from the corner to give the winners a 4-0 lead.

THE ACADEMY Vikings came right back to tie the score at 4-4. Three more times in that first period the score was knotted before the Vikings went ahead on John Fulford's three point play with 1:30 to go in the quarter. Fouled in the act of taking a shot, the 6-4 Academy pivot man hit the basket in spite of the contact and then added the ensuing free throw to make the score 16-14.

The Mustangs went scoreless for the last 2½ minutes of the first quarter.

Not satisfied with the half court man to man in the first quarter that let the Vikings move out to a five point lead, the Mustangs opened the second with a full court press.

They hacked away at the gap separating the two teams until with 4:10 to go, Tom Hamman connected on a 30-foot jump shot and the Mustangs were out front, 30-29.

In the last half of the second quarter, they outscored the losers, 11-3, and were never threatened again.

As the last period got under way it was no longer a question as to who would win, but rather how much Westfall would outscore the Academy quintet.

WESTFALL forced the Franklin County based quintet into 28 turnovers in the game while committing 16.

Rebounding department was the only one in which Academy gained an edge, hauling 39 off the boards compared to 36 for the winners.

The Mustangs shot 81 times, hitting 31 of the tries for a 38 per cent average. The Vikings shot 52 times and converted 19 for a 37 per cent rate.

From the foul line, Westfall hit 18 of 25 and Academy hit 16 of 27.

The leading scorer in the game was Tom Hamman, veteran guard for the Mustangs. He swished ten field goals through the nets and added four points at the foul line for a total of 24.

Ray Mowery came off the bench to notch 14 for the winners, Neil Coleman also had 14 and Brad Thompson has 11.

WESTFALL's other two starters, Tom Beard and Tom Scribner, had six and five respectively.

For the losers, John Fulford's 19 markers was the best effort. Westfall's win sets up what should be the top attraction of the sectional tournament. The Mustangs will meet the Braves of Logan Elm in the upper bracket finals, with that winner slated to go on to district play at Columbus Coliseum.

It will mark the third time this year the two teams have met.

The Westfall quintet won both of the other games.

Bullets Take Heavy Toll With Celtics

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Five weeks ago the Boston Celtics were Bullet-proof. Today they're an entry on the ballistic report.

The Baltimore Bullets, triggered by Johnny Green and Gu Johnson, leveled Boston with a 40-point third-quarter volley Sunday and blasted the defending National Basketball Association kings 132-92.

The most one-sided loss absorbed by the Celtics in six years trimmed their Eastern Division lead to 1½ games over the Philadelphia.

St. Louis, sparked by veteran Cliff Hagan, trimmed Detroit 125-114 in the only other game of Sunday's schedule.

Red Auerbach's Celtics, who swept their first six games against Baltimore this season have been cannon-fodder for the Bullets in the last three—all on the Baltimore court. The Bullet whipped them 132-107 Jan. 22 followed up with a 113-94 decision Feb. 5 and rattled them Sunday in the nationally televised game as six players hit for 14 points and up.

Green, who came off the bench in the second quarter to lead a blistering fast break that eventually broke open the game, topped the point parade with 24, one more than Johnson.

Redlegs Prep For Extra Runs

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Rookie manager Don Heffner says he doesn't intend to make the Cincinnati Reds change their style of playing baseball. He just wants the team to pick up a few extra tricks.

Heffner plans to make the Reds practice their sliding and bunting. In the past, the club has relied heavily on power hitting.

The Reds were pennant contenders last season until the closing weeks and then finished in fourth place, six games behind the league leader.

Several of these defeats were by a single run. Cincinnati suffered 26 defeats by one run while winning 25 times by the same margin.

Ronnie Miller, Circleville's 145-pound wrestler, won both his matches in the Whetstone Sectional tournament to earn a berth in the district at Walnut Ridge.

Miller was the only Tiger grappler to advance out of the sectional. He decided fourth seeded Cooley of Grove City, 7-5, and then beat Darnell Thomas of Columbus West on a referee's decision.

Thomas was the top seeded wrestler in the clas and had a 17-1 record going into the meet.

Four other Red and Black wrestlers won their first matches, but were bested in the second.

STEVE NELSON, the 103-pounder, decided Krebs of Pleasant View, 7-2, only to drop his second match when pinned by Branham of Franklin Heights in 3:06.

John Butts decided Collura of Bishop Ready, 9-1, but lost to Hill of Franklin Heights, in the 123 class.

Jim Archer pinned Zubick of the Blind School in just 20 seconds the first time, but was pinned by Robinson of Columbus South in 5:04 of the second match.

his try at the charity stripe to knot the score.

At that point, the Vikings tried to control the ball for a last shot. But with 14 seconds to go they lost the ball on a charging foul.

Whitehall called time out to set up strategy for a last effort. Tarleton shot with four seconds and missed. Harvey Eader grabbed the rebound but put his shot high on the bank board and missed just as the buzzer sounded and the game went into overtime.

The Vikings controlled the overtime tip and held on to the ball for a full minute before Rod Teets was fouled. He converted both ends of the one-and-one to give Teays Valley a 62-60 lead.

However, Jim Cooper of Whitehall was fouled, made the first and missed the second to close the margin to one point.

Gayle Fosnaugh came right back for the Vikings and the score stood at 64-61 with 1:25 to go.

WITH 52 seconds remaining, Butch Kinsell was fouled and made one shot and the Vikings were leading, 65-61. Stan Robinson drove the length of the floor after Kinsell's second try missed the basket and canned a field goal that put the Rams only two points down.

Teets rebounded a missed shot with 25 seconds to go, tipping in his second effort, and then Fosnaugh iced the win with a bucket in the last six seconds.

Teays Valley had 33 rebounds. Fosnaugh's 10 was the top effort, and two of these came in key situations in the overtime. Teets had nine.

In assists, Kinsell was credited with six and Gerald Green with five.

Gaining game scoring honors was Rod Teets with 20 markers. He got balanced support from his teammates as Fosnaugh had 15, Kinsell 14, Wilson 13 and Green seven. For the losers, Eader had 16.

The win gives the Vikings a 11-8 record for the season.

his try at the charity stripe to knot the score.

At that point, the Vikings tried to control the ball for a last shot. But with 14 seconds to go they lost the ball on a charging foul.

Whitehall called time out to set up strategy for a last effort. Tarleton shot with four seconds and missed. Harvey Eader grabbed the rebound but put his shot high on the bank board and missed just as the buzzer sounded and the game went into overtime.

The Vikings controlled the overtime tip and held on to the ball for a full minute before Rod Teets was fouled. He converted both ends of the one-and-one to give Teays Valley a 62-60 lead.

However, Jim Cooper of Whitehall was fouled, made the first and missed the second to close the margin to one point.

Gayle Fosnaugh came right back for the Vikings and the score stood at 64-61 with 1:25 to go.

WITH 52 seconds remaining, Butch Kinsell was fouled and made one shot and the Vikings were leading, 65-61. Stan Robinson drove the length of the floor after Kinsell's second try missed the basket and canned a field goal that put the Rams only two points down.

Teets rebounded a missed shot with 25 seconds to go, tipping in his second effort, and then Fosnaugh iced the win with a bucket in the last six seconds.

Teays Valley had 33 rebounds. Fosnaugh's 10 was the top effort, and two of these came in key situations in the overtime. Teets had nine.

In assists, Kinsell was credited with six and Gerald Green with five.

Gaining game scoring honors was Rod Teets with 20 markers. He got balanced support from his teammates as Fosnaugh had 15, Kinsell 14, Wilson 13 and Green seven. For the losers, Eader had 16.

The win gives the Vikings a 11-8 record for the season.

Ohio Colleges Point to Tournaments

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Now that conference races have been resolved, Ohio's top college basketball teams can take dead aim at post-season tournament championships.

Miami and Cincinnati locked up titles Saturday and vaulted into NCAA tournament action. The Redskins, with one regular season game remaining, whipped Toledo 79-72 for the Mid-American Conference crown on a 11-1 record. Runner-up Toledo needed a home court victory over Miami and one over Ohio University on the road Wednesday to share a piece of the championship.

Cincinnati captured its seventh Missouri Valley Conference flag in nine seasons with a 56-49 decision over Drake.

Miami faces independent Dayton in the opener of the NCAA's first round Mid-East Regional at Kent State next Monday. Chicago Loyola tangles with Ohio Valley Conference king Western Kentucky in the second half of the twin-bill. The two winners advance to Iowa City.

Cincinnati entertains Xavier Thursday in its final regular season contest before moving to Lubbock, Tex., for NCAA regional action.

The Ohio Conference tournament king will emerge from Tuesday's clash between Akron, the host team, and Otterbein. The two potent clubs won the northern and southern division OC tournaments, respectively, over the weekend.

Akron, after a slow start, rocked Baldwin-Wallace, 86-68, for its 35th straight success on the home floor.

Don Carson drilled in 32 points and set two more OC marks in Otterbein's 71-60 decision over Wettnberg. The output brought his total points for the season to 674, breaking the old mark of 642 and his free throw total to 212, eclipsing the 194 record held by John Dunlop of Kenyon.

The Akron-Otterbein winner earns the right to meet Youngstown in the second game of the

6-Footer Leads Kentucky to 23rd Victory

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Louie Dampier, at only 6 feet almost a basketball oddity, is a prime reason why unbeaten Kentucky is headed for its 15th appearance in the NCAA tournament and a chance for an unprecedented fifth championship.

He scored 29 points Saturday night as the top-ranked Wildcats defeated Tennessee 78-64 for their 23rd victory and clinched at least a tie for the South eastern Conference crown. He and Pat Riley, both juniors, lead Kentucky in scoring, each averaging about 21½ points a game.

Moving into the NCAA with Kentucky following Saturday's games were Davidson, Cincinnati and Miami of Ohio.

Davidson won its first Southern Conference title, defeating West Virginia in the tournament final 80-69 behind Dick Snyder's 27 points.

Cincinnati clinched the Missouri Valley crown by trimming Drake 56-49, and Miami grabbed the Mid-American Conference crown with a 79-72 triumph over Toledo.

Duke's second-ranked Blue Devils ended their regular season with a 77-63 victory over North Carolina. Now they get set for the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament, which they must win in order to get to the NCAA. Their first game is against Wake Forest Thursday.

Kansas, No. 6, took a half-game lead in the Big Eight by handing Nebraska, No. 8, its first league loss 110-72, while 10th-ranked Michigan held onto a one-game margin in the Big Ten, crushing Purdue 105-85.

Utah clinched a tie for the Western Athletic Conference title with a 97-85 triumph over New Mexico. Southern Methodist pulled into a first-place tie with Texas A&M in the Southwest Conference by edging Texas 71-69.

Oregon State retained a 1½-game lead in the Pacific Athletic Conference with a 54-47 victory over Washington State while the University of Pacific snapped San Francisco's 34-game home-court winning streak 82-71 and grabbed a one-game lead over the Dons in the West Coast Athletic Conference.

Penn missed a chance at putting away the Ivy League crown, losing at Cornell 81-76.

Among the independents, seventh-ranked St. Joseph's, Pa., walloped Xavier of Ohio 101-83, ninth-ranked Providence downed Holy Cross 81-72, St. John's edged Marquette 70-68, Houston trampled Portland 109-84, Army stopped Navy 70-56 and Dayton nipped De Paul 76-73.

Circleville Barbell Club Wins Meet; 11 Records Set

There were nine state and two junior national records broken Saturday as the Circleville Barbell Club added another victory for its undefeated power lift team.

The local club scored 22 points in the match, compared to 14 for Cincinnati YMCA and 10 for the Health Club. Dayton Barbell Club had 10 points.

More than 40 lifters from all over the state were entered in the competition.

Phil Grubb had an easy time winning the 123-pound class as he set a state record in the squat lift with a 275-pound effort. Steve Francis of Circleville placed second and Bill Cook fourth in the class.

TOM CASSILL was disqualified on all his squat attempts in the 132-pound class but set a state record in the deadlift with 415 pounds.

Jack Rice of Cincinnati won the 148-pound class with a new state record total of 1,105. He won the outstanding lifters trophy.

George Crawford set a new junior national squat record in the same class with a lift of 410 pounds. Eddie Baker of Circleville placed third in the class.

Bruce Horn of Circleville pulled an upset win in the 165-pound class when he came through with a 475-pound deadlift.

NCAA Mid-East College Division Regional at Akron, March 4-5. In the opener, Randolph-Macon opposes Steubenville.

In other games Saturday, Dayton tuned up for NCAA play with a tight 76-73 victory over De Paul as Hank Finkel delivered two key free throws with 15 seconds left.

Ohio State got 26 points from Ron Sopic but lost on the road to Northwestern 88-77 as the Wildcats scored their fifth Big Ten triumph in a row. The Bucks slipped to 4-7 in the league, only a game out of last place.

Elsewhere, Bowling Green ended a five-game losing streak by outlasting Ohio University 90-78; Kent State toppled Buffalo, 63-55; St. Joseph's (Pa.) clouted Xavier 101-83; Youngstown, after a brief slump, stopped St. Vincent 82-63; Findlay lost to Kent State 83-78; Bluffton bumped Malone 86-66; De fiance shaded Adrian 84-79; Earlham routed Wilmington 110-86 and Cedarville socked Detroit Tech 93-57.

Maine Bids For Clay's Next Bout

CHICAGO (AP)—Pittsburgh is out of the running for the Cassius Clay-Ernie Terrell fight, and Chicago is likely to be after today.

But not Bangor, Maine.

The State of Maine, host to the highly controversial, loudly disputed and generally derided second fight between Clay and Sonny Liston, made a bid for Clay-Terrell Sunday night, a bid that depends on the action of the Illinois Athletic Commission.

The Illinois commission was scheduled to resume its hearings today on whether to allow the fight to go on. Most observers feel there is little chance the commission will give it the go-ahead.

And a Pittsburgh promoter withdrew an offer to stage the bout if it's kicked out of Illinois. But a spokesman for Sam Michael, co-promoter of the Clay-Liston fight in Lewiston, Maine, said Sunday night that efforts are being made to get the fight staged in Bangor.

The furor all began less than two weeks ago when Clay's Louisville draft board reclassified him from I-Y to I-A.

The volatile Clay made a string of remarks over his reclassification which Illinois Gov. Otto Kerner termed "unpatriotic" and "disgusting" and asked the commission to reconsider the issuance of Illinois licenses to the fighters.

Wildcats Win, Pioneers Lose in Chillicothe Event

Laurelville decisioned Allensville, 64-61, and Zane Trace was dumped from further cage action, by Adena, 75-67, Saturday in the Chillicothe sectional tournament.

The game between the Wildcats of Dale Wilson and Allensville marked the third time this year the two teams have met, and the third win for Laurelville.

Both are members of the Vinton-Hocking cage league. The game was close all the way with Laurelville holding leads of 15-11 at the end of the first quarter, 33-24 at halftime, and 45-42 as the final canto got under way.

Rick Unger hit for 18 points, Dwight Woodward for 14, and Steve Hettinger for 10 to pace Laurelville.

MACK BETHEL kept Allensville within striking distance throughout the tilt with his 31 point effort.

The Wildcats hit 27 of 58 field goal attempts for a 46 per cent accuracy, rate but fared little better at the foul line where they converted 12 of 24 for a 50 per cent average.

Zane Trace was outscored in only the second quarter by Adena, but the Warriors built a ten point edge during that period that the Pioneers found impossible to overcome.

The score was deadlocked, 12-12 at the end of the first period. The second canto saw the winners come up with a 23 point performance while the losers tallied 13.

The third period saw Zane Trace score 19 to 17 for Adena, and in the last quarter both teams notched 23 points.

Ron Ramsey with 21 and Clarence Pettiford with 19 paced the winners.

FOR ZANE TRACE, Ron Edwards scored 16, Greg Ebert 15 and Francis Breeden 12.

On Friday Laurelville will meet Union in the Chillicothe sectional. Adena plays Bishop Flaget.

Baseball Holdouts Take Spring Training Spotlight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Buzzy Bavasi isn't talking and he's got plenty of company today as baseball's battle of the pen reaches the showdown stage.

Bavasi, the Los Angeles Dodgers' general manager, continues to fight the good fight with ace pitcher Sandy Koufax and Don Drysdale but he won't say anymore about it.

"This is the last time I will discuss the Koufax-Drysdale affair with newsmen until I have had a chance to negotiate with them," Bavasi told reporters Sunday.

"I have no idea when I will talk to them," the Dodger GM added.

Koufax and Drysdale are holding out for reported identical three-year contracts that would cost the Dodgers a total of $1 million. Apparently the money involved isn't as much of an issue as the length of contract.

"Koufax and Drysdale are entitled to everything they can get," Bavasi said, "but under no circumstances would any player on this club get more than a one-year contract."

Joining Bavasi in silence was Cleveland pitcher Ralph Terry who is battling Indians' General Manager Gabe Paul over some $7,000, and Cincinnati's assistant GM, Phil Seghi, who is after signatures from pitcher Jim Mahoney and infielder Deron Johnson.

Terry is asking for $38,000 from the Indians, a boost of $7,000 over last year's salary, but he's having trouble convincing Paul.

"I'll wait all year at home if that is what Gabe wants," Terry said. "I wrote to him Saturday and the next move is up to him. He knows what it'll take to sign me." Terry was 11-6 last year.

Seghi said talks with Maloney and Johnson have reached an impasse. Maloney, who pitched two no-hitters and had a 20-9 record last year, and Johnson, the major leagues' runs-batted-in champ with 130, are seeking sizable boosts over their 1965 salaries.

"I haven't heard from either one today," Seghi said Sunday. "The next move is up to Jimmy and Deron."

Apparently communications have also broken down between the Atlanta Braves and ace right-hander Tony Cloninger, a 24-game winner in 1965. Braves' President John McHale said he hasn't heard from Cloninger in almost a week.

A cluster of other front-line pitchers including San Francisco's Juan Marichal and Bob Shaw, Jim (Mudcat) Grant of Minnesota, John Wyatt of Kansas City and Jack Fisher of the New York mets remained unsigned.

All-Big 10 Team Held By Seniors

CHICAGO (AP)—A comparatively small but all-senior All-Big Ten Basketball Team for 1966 was named today by The Associated Press.

It is headed by unanimous choices Cazzie Russel of Michigan and Purdue's Dave Schellhase, each selected for the third straight season.

Another top choice was Illinois' Don Freeman, who set an all-time Illinois scoring record. Archie Clark of Minnesota and Stan Washington of Michigan State round out the first team.

Dropping to the all-senior second team by a narrow count was Minnesota's Lou Hudson, a first lineup choice a year ago. Early this season he suffered a fractured wrist and was sidelined for nearly a month.

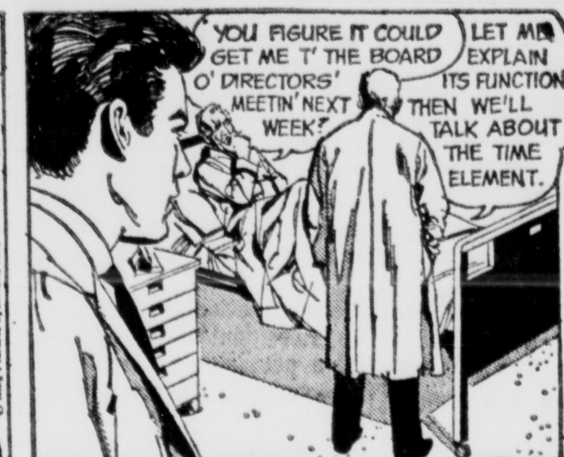

With Hudson on the well-balanced No. 2 squad are Oliver Darden of Michigan; George Peoples of Iowa; Bill Curtis of Michigan State and Northwestern's Jim Pitts.

Bill Hosket and Bob Dove of Ohio State won honorable mention recognition.

Ohio Colleges Point to Tourneys

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Now that conference races have been resolved, Ohio's top college basketball teams can take dead aim at post-season tournament championships.

Miami and Cincinnati locked up titles Saturday and vaulted into NCAA tournament action.

The Redskins, with one regular season game remaining, whipped Toledo 79-72 for the Mid-American Conference crown on a 11-1 record. Runner-up Toledo needed a home court victory over Miami and one over Ohio University on the road Wednesday to share a piece of the championship.

Cincinnati captured its seventh Missouri Valley Conference flag in nine seasons with a 56-49 decision over Drake.

Miami faces independent Dayton in the opener of the NCAA's first round Mid-East Regional at Kent State next Monday. Chicago Loyola tangles with Ohio Valley Conference king Western Kentucky in the second half of the twin-bill. The two winners advance to Iowa City.

Cincinnati entertains Xavier Thursday in its final regular season contest before moving to Lubbock, Tex., for NCAA regional action.

The Ohio Conference tournament king will emerge from Tuesday's clash between Akron, the host team, and Otterbein. The two potent clubs won the northern and southern division OC tournaments, respectively, over the weekend.

Akron, after a slow start, rocked Baldwin-Wallace, 86-68, for its 35th straight success on the home floor.

Don Carlos drilled in 33 points and set two more OC marks in Otterbein's 71-60 decision over Wietenberg. The output brought his total points for the season to 674, breaking the old mark of 642 and his free throw total to 212, eclipsing the 194 record held by John Dunlop of Kenyon.

The Akron-Otterbein winner earns the right to meet Youngstown in the second game of the

Louie Dampier, at only 6 feet almost a basketball oddity, is a prime reason why unbeaten Kentucky is headed for its 15th appearance in the NCAA tournament and a chance for an unprecedented fifth championship.

He scored 29 points Saturday night as the top-ranked Wildcats defeated Tennessee 78-64 for their 23rd victory and clinched at least a tie for the South eastern Conference crown. He and Pat Riley, both juniors, lead Kentucky in scoring, each averaging about 21½ points a game.

Moving into the NCAA with Kentucky following Saturday's games were Davidson, Cincinnati and Miami of Ohio.

Davidson won its first Southern Conference title, defeating West Virginia in the tournament final 80-69 behind Dick Snyder's 27 points.

Cincinnati clinched the Missouri Valley crown by trimming Drake 56-49, and Miami grabbed the Mid-American Conference crown with a 79-72 triumph over Toledo.

Duke's second-ranked Blue Devils ended their regular season with a 77-63 victory over North Carolina. Now they get set for the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament, which they must win in order to get to the NCAA. Their first game is against Wake Forest Thursday.

Kansas, No. 6, took a half-game lead in the Big Eight by handing Nebraska, No. 8, its first league loss 110-72, while 10th-ranked Michigan held onto a one-game margin in the Big Ten, crushing Purdue 105-85.

Utah clinched a tie for the Western Athletic Conference title with a 97-85 triumph over New Mexico. Southern Methodist pulled into a first-place tie with Texas A&M in the South-west Conference by edging Texas 71-69.

Oregon State retained a 1½-game lead in the Pacific Athletic Conference with a 54-47 victory over Washington State while the University of Pacific snapped San Francisco's 34-game home-court winning streak 82-71 and grabbed a one-game lead over the Dons in the West Coast Athletic Conference.

Penn missed a chance at putting away the Ivy League crown, losing at Cornell 81-76.

Among the independents, seventh-ranked St. Joseph's, Pa., walloped Xavier of Ohio 101-83, ninth-ranked Providence downed Holy Cross 81-72, St. John's edged Marquette 70-68, Houston trampled Portland 109-84, Army stopped Navy 70-56 and Dayton nipped De Paul 76-73.

Circleville Barbell Club Wins Meet; 11 Records Set

There were nine state and two junior national records broken Saturday as the Circleville Barbell Club added another victory for its undefeated power lift team.

The local club scored 22 points in the match, compared to 14 for Cincinnati YMCA and Torio's Health Club. Dayton Barbell Club had 10 points.

More than 40 lifters from all over the state were entered in the competition.

Phil Grubb had an easy time winning the 123-pound class as he set a state record in the squat lift with a 275-pound effort. Steve Francis of Circleville placed second and Bill Cook fourth in the class.

TOM CASSILL was disqualified on all his squat attempts in the 132-pound class but set a state record in the deadlift with 415 pounds.

Jack Rice of Cincinnati won the 148-pound class with a new state record total of 1,105. He won the outstanding lifters trophy.

George Crawford set a new junior national squat record in the same class with a lift of 410 pounds. Eddie Baker of Circleville placed third in the class.

Bruce Horn of Circleville pulled an upset win in the 165-pound class when he came through with a 475-pound deadlift.

NCAA Mid-East College Division Regional at Akron, March 4-5. In the opener, Randolph-Macon opposes Steubenville.

In other games Saturday, Dayton tuned up for NCAA play with a tight 76-73 victory over De Paul as Hank Finkel delivered two key free throws with 15 seconds left.

Ohio State got 26 points from Ron Sepic but lost on the road to Northwestern 78-77 as the Wildcats scored their fifth Big Ten triumph in a row. The Bucks slipped to 4-7 in the league, only a game out of last place.

Elsewhere, Bowling Green ended a five-game losing streak by outlasting Ohio University 90-78; Kent State topped Buffalo, 63-55; St. Joseph's (Pa.) clouted Xavier 101-83; Youngstown, after a brief slump, stopped St. Vincent 82-63; Findlay lost to Kent State 83-78; Bluffton bumped Malone 86-66; De fiance shaded Adrian 84 - 79; Earlham routed Wilmington 110-88 and Cedarville socked Detroit Tech 93-57.

Maine Bids For Clay's Next Bout

CHICAGO (AP) — Pittsburgh is out of the running for the Cassius Clay-Ernie Terrell fight, and Chicago is likely to be after today.

But not Bangor, Maine.

The State of Maine, host to the highly controversial, loudly disputed and generally derided second fight between Clay and Sonny Liston, made a bid for Clay-Terrell Sunday night, a bid that depends on the action of the Illinois Athletic Commission.

The Illinois commission was scheduled to resume its hearings today on whether to allow the fight to go on. Most observers feel there is little chance the commission will give it the go-ahead.

And a Pittsburgh promoter withdrew an offer to stage the bout if it's kicked out of Illinois. But a spokesman for Sam Michael, co-promoter of the Clay-Liston fight in Lewiston, Maine, said Sunday night that efforts are being made to get the fight staged in Bangor.

The furor all began less than two weeks ago when Clay's Louisville draft board reclassified him from I-Y to I-A.

The volatile Clay made a string of remarks over his reclassification which Illinois Gov. Otto Kerner termed "unpatriotic" and "disgusting" and asked the commission to reconsider the issuance of Illinois licenses to the fighters.

Wildcats Win, Pioneers Lose in Chillicothe Event

Laurelville decisioned Allensville, 64-61, and Zane Trace was dumped from further cage action, by Adena, 75-67, Saturday in the Chillicothe sectional tournament.

The game between the Wildcats of Dale Wilson and Allensville marked the third time this year the two teams have met, and the third win for Laurelville.

Both are members of the Vinton-Hocking cage league. The game was close all the way with Laurelville holding leads of 15-11 at the end of the first quarter, 33-24 at halftime, and 45-42 as the final canto got underway.

Rick Unger hit for 18 points, Dwight Woodward for 14, and Steve Hettinger for 10 to pace Laurelville.

MACK BETHEL kept Allensville within striking distance throughout the tilt with his 31 point effort.

The Wildcats hit 27 of 58 field goal attempts for a 46 per cent accuracy, rate but fared little better at the foul line where they converted 12 of 24 for a 50 per cent average.

Zane Trace was outscored in only the second quarter by Adena, but the Warriors built a ten point edge during that period that the Pioneers found impossible to overcome.

The score was deadlocked, 12-12 at the end of the first period. The second canto saw the winners come up with a 23 point performance while the losers tallied 13.

The third period saw Zane Trace score 19 to 17 for Adena, and in the last quarter both teams notched 23 points.

Ron Ramsey with 21 and Clarence Pettiford with 19 paced the winners.

FOR ZANE TRACE, Ron Edwards scored 16, Greg Ebert 15 and Francis Breeden 12.

On Friday Laurelville will meet Unioto in the Chillicothe sectional. Adena plays Bishop Flaget.

Baseball Holdouts Take Spring Training Spotlight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Buzzy Bavasi isn't talking and he's got plenty of company today as baseball's battle of the pen reaches the showdown stage.

Bavasi, the Los Angeles Dodgers' general manager, continues to fight the good fight with ace pitcher Sandy Koufax and Don Drysdale but he won't say anyone about it.

"This is the last time I will discuss the Koufax-Drysdale affair with newsmen until I have had a chance to negotiate with them," Bavasi told reporters Sunday.

"I have no idea when I will talk to them," the Dodger GM added.

Koufax and Drysdale are holding out for reported identical three-year contracts that would cost the Dodgers a total of $1 million. Apparently the money involved isn't as much of an issue as the length of contract.

"Koufax and Drysdale are entitled to everything they can get," Bavasi said, "but under no circumstances would any player on this club get more than a one-year contract."

Joining Bavasi in silence was Cleveland pitcher Ralph Terry who is battling Indians' General Manager Gabe Paul over some $7,000, and Cincinnati's assistant GM, Phil Seghi, who is after signatures from pitcher Jim Mahoney and infielder Deron Johnson.

Terry is asking for $38,000 from the Indians, a boost of $7,000 over last year's salary, but he's having trouble convincing Paul.

"I'll wait all year at home if that is what Gabe wants," Terry said. "I wrote to him Saturday and the next move is up to him. He knows what it'll take to sign me." Terry was 11-6 last year.

Seghi said talks with Mahoney and Johnson have reached an impasse. Mahoney, who pitched two no-hitters and had a 20-9 record last year, and Johnson, the major leagues' runs-batted-in champ with 130, are seeking sizable boosts over their 1965 salaries.

"I haven't heard from either one today," Seghi said Sunday. "The next move is up to Jimmy and Deron."

Apparently, communications have also broken down between the Atlanta Braves and ace right-hander Tony Cloninger, a 24-game winner in 1965. Braves' President John McHale said he hasn't heard from Cloninger in almost a week.

A cluster of other front-line pitchers including San Francisco's Juan Marichal and Bob Shaw, Jim (Mudcat) Grant of Minnesota, John Wyatt of Kansas City and Jack Fisher of the New York mets remained unsigned.

All-Big 10 Team Held By Seniors

CHICAGO (AP)—A comparatively small but all-senior All-Big Ten Basketball Team for 1966 was named today by The Associated Press.

It is headed by unanimous choices Cazzie Russel of Michigan and Purdue's Dave Schell-hase, each selected for the third straight season.

Another top choice was Illinois' Don Freeman, who set an all-time Illinois scoring record. Archie Clark of Minnesota and Stan Washington of Michigan State round out the first team.

Dropping to the all-senior second team by a narrow count was Minnesota's Lou Hudson, a first lineup choice a year ago. Early this season he suffered a fractured wrist and was sidelined for nearly a month.

With Hudson on the well-balanced No. 2 squad are Oliver Darden of Michigan; George Peoples of Iowa; Bill Curtis of Michigan State and Northwestern's Jim Pitts.

Bill Hosket and Bob Dove of Ohio State won honorable mention recognition.

Antistrike Idea Irritates Unions

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The AFL-CIO Executive Council takes up another sore point with the White House today in discussing President Johnson's antistrike proposal.

"There are grave problems for the government, labor, industry and the states" in any such new legislation, a spokesman for AFL-CIO President George Meany said.

Although the labor leaders say they have no details on what Johnson might recommend to Congress, they fear any antistrike legislation would curb their ultimate weapon.

Discussion of Johnson's antistrike proposal comes after two weeks of sniping between the AFL-CIO and the Johnson administration over White House efforts to hold down wage increases, how much of a minimum-wage increase should be recommended to Congress, and complaints that the Democratic administration has not lived up to its political promises to labor.

Although no legislation reportedly is being drafted at the moment to curb strikes, the Labor Department has been working on drafts that could lead to a bill for Congress to consider.

Johnson first broached the proposal in his State of the Union message, saying he would ask Congress to consider measures to deal with strikes that threaten irreparable harm to the national interest.

On the economic front, AFL-CIO leaders still refuse to accept White House guidelines that attempt to hold wage increases to 3.2 per cent a year.

Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz said Sunday that "We've got to press harder" to persuade both labor and business to hold down wage and price increases that threaten inflation.

Wirtz, target of some harsh statements by Meany and other AFL-CIO leaders after he had spoken to them here, said in Washington on "Meet the Press" over NBC: "We're not in a popularity contest."

But on the dispute over the amount of a minimum-wage increase, sources close to Meany leaked word that the AFL-CIO is ready to compromise by accepting increases in the present $1.25 federal minimum wage to $1.40 this year, $1.50 next year and $1.60 in 1968.

The White House position reportedly has been for an increase to $1.40 this year, $1.60 in 1968 — with no increase in 1967.

Wirtz is due here again Tuesday to address a meeting of the International Ladies Garment Workers Union, but there's no report that a meeting with Meany is scheduled.

The World Today

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
For James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP) — A "squeaker" vote in the House last week has given administration leaders cause for concern over the prospects for pushing costly domestic programs through Congress this year.

It came on a Republican-backed motion to strike from the President's emergency tax bill a provision restoring recent reductions in excise taxes on automobiles and telephone calls.

The motion lost by a scant 20 votes out of 394 total votes. The margin of victory for the President's forces was 22 votes cast by Republicans against the motion. They were joined by 185 Democrats.

More significant was the fact that 76 Democrats joined 111 Republicans in support of the motion. This was one of the largest defections in some time and it came on the first major test vote of 1966 on an administration measure.

What has the President's congressional leaders worried is that the tax bill was labeled as a defense measure — its purpose was to raise money to help pay for the cost of the war in Viet Nam.

If they can win by only 20 votes on a proposal so closely related to the war, some administration leaders are asking themselves, what will happen when the chips are down on a purely domestic proposition?

House Republicans already have served public notice that they will fight all new and costly domestic programs which they consider nonessential, and they expect lots of help from conservative Democrats.

So long as the fighting in Viet Nam continues to drain heavily on federal revenues, the Republicans insist, nonessential domestic spending must be held down to prevent inflation.

Most Republicans consider some of the President's "Great Society" programs as strictly nonessential. They apply that label to some of the existing programs and some of the proposed measures.

Republicans hope to make inflation, or the threat of inflation, a major issue in their bid to pick up seats in the congressional elections next November.

If the danger continues, they plan to blame the Democrats. If it lessens, they will claim the credit.

'Dead' Ohio Sailor Faces Navy Trial

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A Worthington sailor once declared dead after being presumed drowned in the Atlantic Ocean, has been ordered to appear before a general court martial on a charge of desertion, the Navy reports.

The sailor, John Randolph Warren, 21, presently is restricted to the Key West, Fla., Naval Station. The charges against him stemmed from a 16-month absence from the Navy following an incident off Virginia Beach in July, 1964.

At that time, Warren, a clerk at the Anacostia Naval Station, was believed drowned and officially declared dead. He had been given a military funeral in Washington after the death ruling.

But in November of 1965 he turned up in a Miami jail with an FBI fingerprint check disclosing his identity.

the domestic budget cutters' strength will come when the House considers Johnson's request for $30 million for rent subsidies and $13 million to finance the Teachers Corps.

Both projects were authorized last year as "Great Society" programs, but Congress refused to finance them. A bill to put up the money is before the House Appropriations Committee and will be coming to the House floor soon. What happens to them could be the tip-off to what will happen to some of the more costly measures to follow.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — A "squeaker" vote in the House last week has given administration leaders cause for concern over the prospects for pushing costly domestic programs through Congress this year.

It came on a Republican-backed motion to strike from the President's emergency tax bill a provision restoring recent reductions in excise taxes on automobiles and telephone calls. The motion lost by a scant 20 votes out of 394 total votes. The margin of victory for the President's forces was 22 votes cast by Republicans against the motion. They were joined by 185 Democrats.

More significant was the fact that 76 Democrats joined 111 Republicans in support of the motion. This was one of the largest defections in some time and it came on the first major test vote of 1966 on an administration measure.

What has the President's congressional leaders worried is that the tax bill was labeled as a defense measure — its purpose was to raise money to help pay for the cost of the war in Viet Nam.

If they can win by only 20 votes on a proposal so closely related to the war, some administration leaders are asking themselves, what will happen when the chips are down on a purely domestic proposition?

House Republicans already have served public notice that they will fight all new and costly domestic programs which they consider nonessential, and they expect lots of help from conservative Democrats.

So long as the fighting in Viet Nam continues to drain heavily on federal revenues, the Republicans insist, nonessential domestic spending must be held down to prevent inflation.

Most Republicans consider some of the President's "Great Society" programs as strictly nonessential. They apply that label to some of the existing programs and some of the proposed measures.

Republicans hope to make inflation, or the threat of inflation, a major issue in their bid to pick up seats in the congressional elections next November. If the danger continues, they plan to blame the Democrats. If it lessens, they will claim the credit.

Perhaps the first real test of the domestic budget cutters' strength will come when the House considers Johnson's request for $30 million for rent subsidies and $13 million to finance the Teachers Corps.

Both projects were authorized last year as "Great Society" programs, but Congress refused to finance them. A bill to put up the money is before the House Appropriations Committee and will be coming to the House floor soon. What happens to them could be the tip-off to what will happen to some of the more costly measures to follow.

Mental Health Board To Meet

Board of Directors of the Pickaway County Mental Health Assn. will meet 8 p. m. Monday in the home of Mrs. David Whaley, 835 Darmouth Drive.

Committees for the planning of a sheltered workshop will be appointed. The committees will investigate such factors as the legal aspects, possible locations, curriculum, enrollment, financial resources and possible locations for the proposal.

Hoyt McPherson, assistant project director for the Workshop Planning Process of Ohio, will assist the local organization with the planning.

'Dead' Ohio Sailor Faces Navy Trial

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A Worthington sailor once declared dead after being presumed drowned in the Atlantic Ocean, has been ordered to appear before a general court martial on a charge of desertion, the Navy reports.

The sailor, John Randolph Warren, 21, presently is restricted to the Key West, Fla., Naval Station. The charges against him stemmed from a 16-month absence from the Navy following an incident off Virginia Beach in July, 1964.

At that time, Warren, a clerk at the Anacostia Naval Station, was believed drowned and officially declared dead. He had been given a military funeral in Washington after the death ruling.

But in November of 1965 he turned up in a Miami jail with an FBI fingerprint check disclosing his identity.

Showdown . . .

"The Viet Cong is not an Asian version of the Americans for Democratic Action or the liberal wing of the Republican or Democratic party," he said. "They engage in assassination, murder, pillage, conquest and I can't, for the life of me, see why the United States would want to propose that such an outfit be part of any government."

Kennedy, appearing on CBS radio-television program "Face the Nation," said he thought his Viet Nam position and that of the Johnson administration, as spelled out by presidential aide Bill D. Moyers, are essentially the same.

But he added there is a great difference between what he believes and the statements made by such administration spokesmen as Humphrey, Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Undersecretary of State George W. Ball.

"Perhaps Mr. Moyers and I are closer together than some of the other spokesmen are to one another," Kennedy said. Without specifically referring to Humphrey, he added:

"I think that statements that are made that we will never deal with assassins or murderers make it difficult for them (the Viet Cong) to believe that they are being asked to come to the negotiating table for anything other than to surrender."

Communist China, speaking through its official New China News Agency, termed Kennedy's proposal a trial balloon and said the Vietnamese people never will agree to the Viet Cong "playing a walk-on part as a showpiece in a puppet regime fostered by the United States."

A Republican organization joined in and accused both Humphrey and Kennedy of building up their images at the expense of U.S. foreign policy. The two are considered by some to be front runners in the race for the Democratic presidential nomination after Johnson steps out.

The Humphrey-Kennedy debate on Viet Nam, said the Council of Republican Organizations, "has confused the American people, contributed to national disunity and created international disquiet over our purposes."
